

High Frequency Words

Did you know that 50% of the text we read is composed of only 107 words (Zeno, Ivens, Millard, & Duvvuri, 1995)? Knowing these words well makes it easier to read fluently.

a	get	must	then
about	had	my	there
after	has	new	these
all	have	no	they
also	he	not	this
an	her	now	through
and	him	of	time
are	his	on	to
as	how	one	two
at	I	only	up
back	if	or	very
be	in	other	was
because	into	our	water
been	is	out	way
but	it	over	we
by	its	people	were called	just	said	what can	know	see	when
could	like	she	where did	little	so	which
do	made	some	who
down	make	such	will
each	many	than	with
even	may	that	would
first	more	the	you
for	most	their	your
from	much	them

Zeno, S. M., Ivens, S. H., Millard, R. T., & Duvvuri, R. (1995). The educator's word frequency guide. New York: Touchstone Applied Science Associates, Inc.